SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY

FACULTY SENATE BILL 21-A-2

Approved by the Faculty Senate
February 10, 2021

BRIEF SUMMARY: This bill revises the existing policy portion of the Faculty Handbook section on Student Evaluation of Instruction (Chapter 3, Section C10)

ACTION OF BILL REVISING THE POLICY SECTION OF “STUDENT EVALUATION OF INSTRUCTION”

BE IT RESOLVED THAT: Subject to the passage and approval of this bill and its companion procedures bill, the policy portion of the Student Evaluation of Instruction section of the faculty handbook (Chapter 3, Section C10) will be replaced by this bill.

Student Evaluation of Instruction

Policy Faculty Senate Bill 21-A-2 begins here.

Student evaluation of instruction at Southeast Missouri State University shall be conducted for ~~four~~ two distinct purposes:

1. to enable individual faculty members to continually improve the quality of their classroom instruction, and
2. to enable students the opportunity to provide feedback. ~~to provide individual faculty members with a measure of perceived effectiveness of instruction,~~
3. ~~to enable students to provide input concerning the quality and content of classroom instruction,~~
4. ~~to acquire institution-wide measures which may be used to compare and contrast Southeast with other universities.~~

~~Student Evaluation for Improvement of Classroom Instruction and Content~~

~~—In recognition of the strong teaching mission of Southeast Missouri State University, formal faculty evaluation processes and incentives shall be implemented and maintained to encourage continuing improvement in instruction and a commitment to quality instruction by all faculty. —Procedures and processes should not only include rigorous peer review and self-evaluation of instructional effectiveness but also systematic, credible student evaluation of instruction.~~

All faculty shall be evaluated by systematic, anonymous student evaluations in all sections of each course taught. ~~Those faculty teaching the same students in an integrated framework of interconnected courses, such as the College of Education's Block program, may have the option to administer just one evaluation per set of courses.~~
